

What we're not.
And what we are.

At The Domarn Group, we don't pretend to be anything that we're not.

We are a Design and Creative Services company with a 24/7 production department. We're renowned for the service, skills and advice we offer clients in the private and public sector, and have built a strong reputation for our work with government departments.

What sets us apart, over our twenty years, is our ability to produce creative, effective work on time, on brief and to budget. Our passion and energy run through every project we work on – large or small, one-off or ongoing. And because The Domarn Group is privately-owned, we offer a personal and attentive service.

We know what we're good at – and we're proud of it.

We're not hot air. But we are hot.

We've been around for 20 years and know our stuff. No head-scratching; just getting on with what's needed. From the brief through to the flightcheck and print, you'll find us efficient and resourceful.

Because of the nature of some of our work (such as white papers and classified documents), we offer total security, confidentiality and integrity.

We're not about creating illusions. But we do have a certain magic.

Call it old-fashioned, but we believe in being honest, open and straight-forward. Added to that we have a certain 'something'. Maybe because we work as a tightly-knit team and build good working partnerships with our clients. Maybe because of our innovative design.

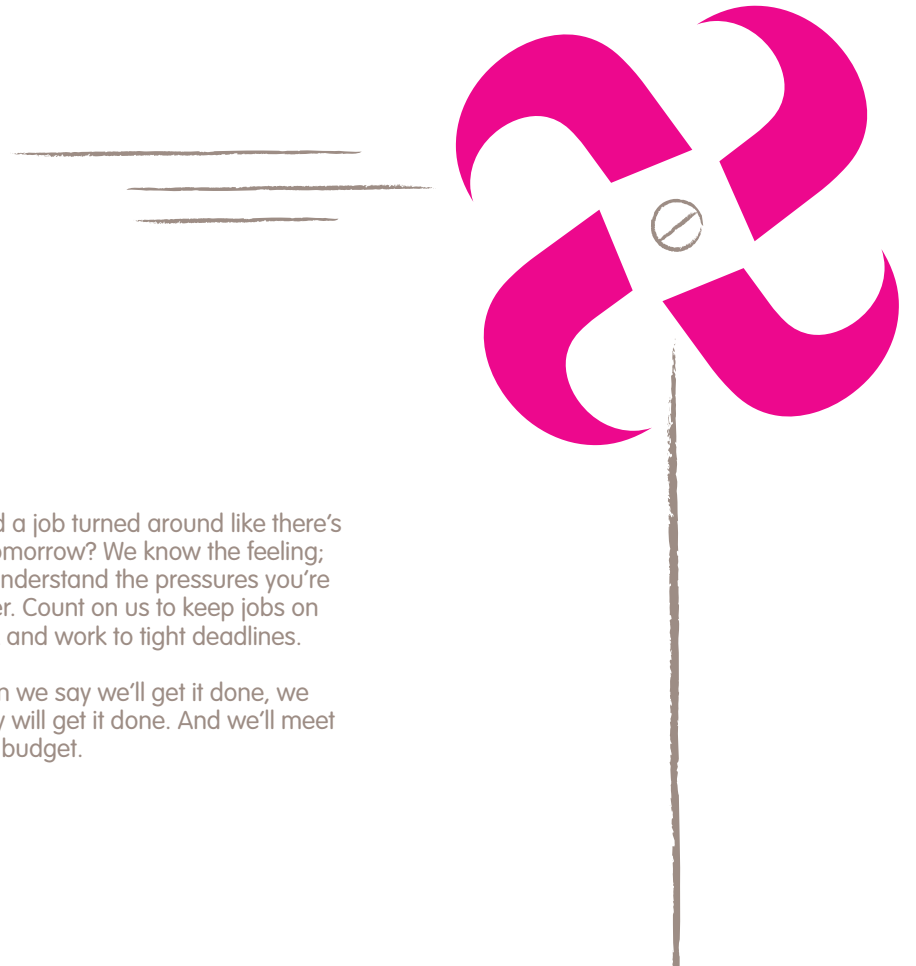

We believe we're the best there is in terms of production and technology.

We're not about a fast buck. But we are fast and efficient.

Need a job turned around like there's no tomorrow? We know the feeling; we understand the pressures you're under. Count on us to keep jobs on track and work to tight deadlines.

When we say we'll get it done, we really will get it done. And we'll meet your budget.

We're not fly by night. But we are open all night.

We're here for you around the clock, offering design by day and 24/7 production and finished artwork. We often work with clients through the night (we make excellent coffee), delivering what is needed, when it's needed.

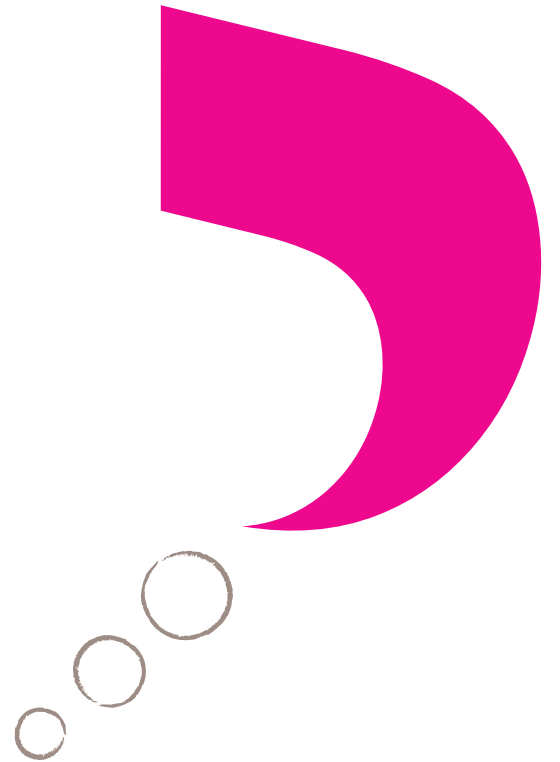

However urgent the job, we check and check again. Nothing is left to chance.

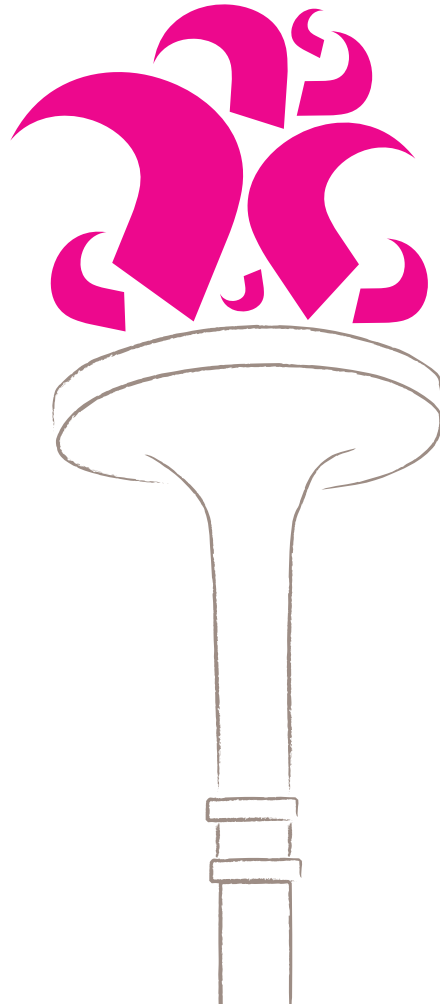

We're not
Sherlock Holmes.
But we are experts at solving problems.

We have the know-how that comes from years of experience – and the foresight too. We have the resources to offer the solutions you need. We understand specialised areas extremely well and are equipped to help.

Think of us as a safe pair of hands.

We're not about chasing awards. But we do have a fantastic track record.

Yes, we're proven and successful. Yes, we have environmental and production accreditations. And yes, we have won awards but what really matters is providing excellent work every time.

You have a business to grow and deadlines to meet. Your reputation is our reputation and we'll do our best to make sure it's upheld.

Our aim is to help our clients achieve their business goals by delivering their message more efficiently, timely and effectively.

They say you're known by the company you keep. Here are some of the clients we are working with: BERR, Clifford Chance, COI, Metropolitan Police, The Royal College of Surgeons, The Wellcome Trust, etc...
